

Quilters to Learn about Narrative Quilts

Colleen Billen will be showcasing one of her “Narrative Quilts” at Hill 'N Hollow Quilters Guild's April 11 meeting. The meeting starts at 9:30 a.m. at The Christian Church of Mountain Home, 1365 Eastside Center Court, Mountain Home, AR.

The quilt entitled “Jason's Euclid. A Study of Good Design” explores the concept of perfection in humanity's design, while unveiling the unexpected and extraordinary manner in which one man's design was uniquely revealed.

Colleen Billen has always considered herself a visionary. This unique perspective became clear in her quilting journey, which started in 2012. It was then that she began to notice the profound connections between the quilts she created and the individuals for whom they were made. Since then, she has crafted over 35 "Narrative Quilts," each telling a profound story of what a good design embodies, through the eyes of the Creator and Designer..

Nonmembers are invited to attend this inspiring presentation. Check out the Guild's website at <https://hillnhollowquilters.com/>
